Attorney General Biden, Holly Petraeus to Discuss Consumer Protection With Delaware Military Service members

What: Delaware Attorney General Beau Biden and Holly Petraeus, Director of the federal Consumer Financial Protection Bureau Office of Service member Affairs, will spend Friday meeting with members of the Delaware National Guard and military personnel stationed at Dover Air Force Base to discuss a variety of consumer protection and financial issues facing America's men and women in uniform. Members of the military can be especially vulnerable to predatory lending and other financial abuses.

When: Friday, January 20, 2012

Where: Attorney General Biden and Mrs. Petraeus will have a media availability upstate Friday morning after their meeting with the Delaware National Guard and will hold a press conference Friday afternoon at Dover Air Force Base before their town hall meeting with airmen.

10:00 a.m. media availability, Delaware National Guard Headquarters Library, First Regiment Road, Wilmington, DE 19808

2:20 p.m. press conference, Dover Air Force Base, Landings Club, Dover, DE 19902

Media interested in attending the 10:00 a.m. media availability should RSVP to Jason Miller, Public Information Officer at the Delaware Department of Justice, at (302) 893-8939.

Media interested in attending the 2:20 p.m. press conference should contact the Dover Air Force Base, 436th Airlift Wing Public Affairs office, at (302) 677-3372.
